Dear Harold,

Because I tore up the first page of the letter to Tyler by accident, I had to re-type the whole letter. I am enclosing two copies of it.

Bolieff called last night just before my parents and brother arrived for dinner. Something about Kevin Welch calling Grodin and telling him Jane might sue you. Robert told Jerry he'd resign if Jane did. It. Jerry said something about a Board of Directors meeting which I didn't catch, but I gathered that Robert would insist on the question of a suit being brought before the CCI's Board of Directors. Jerry also says that Woodal and Robert are fighting over their book, but ~~[illegible]~~ Jerry says Robert will never come to you for help. Jerry is trying to help him.

Jerry says that Horrock used to work for Newsweek and that the source of his N.Y. Times articles on Watergate was Bennett of Mullen Co. He says this came out in the Ellsberg hearings.

Bud told me in passing the other day that he is going to handle a lawsuit — slander, I think, — brought by Sam Jaffe against Mosenko. He's trying to locate Mosenko.

Best regards, Jim
